

CJN video competition Checklist

When creating your video, please make sure to include everything from the following checklist!

Beginning of the film	The film has a title
	The year is shown
	Clear beginning with a short introduction
Ending of the film	Smooth ending without any sudden “cut”
	Name of student(s) who worked on the film
	Name of teacher(s)
	Name of school
Story	Credits for sources of information, images, and music used in the film
	Smooth storyflow: the film has an introduction, a middle section, and an ending
	The video is interesting to watch. It elicits curiosity and a desire to know more
Subtitles	The facts and content of the film are historically accurate
	The video has subtitles
	Readable subtitles (they don't disappear too fast; their color is different from the background)
Audio	Correct grammar, spelling and punctuation
	No loud background noise
	The music is relevant to the film, it is not too loud or wordy
	Clear sound and understandable narration
Images	Grammatically correct narration, good pronunciation
	If you use your phone: hold it horizontally, never vertically
	Video footages are good quality, not too dark, not shaky
	As many original photos and documents were used as possible
	Images used in the film are relevant and connect to the topic

Questions? Contact Tina Hemera: hemera@centropa.org